THREE DROWN AT SHAWNIGAN

Overcrowded Boat Thought Responsible for Tragedy—One Man Loses Grip and Sinks as Rescuer Nears

SURVIVOR UNABLE TO TELL COHERENT STORY

Provincial Police Find No Trace of Men After Dragging Lake All Day—To Continue Search Today

PROVINCIAL police officers, who dragged Shawnigan Lake all day yesterday, failed to find any trace of the three men who were drowned at 10:30 o'clock Monday night when their boat filled and threw four occupants into the water. Only one man was saved.

Those who perished were Messrs. Harry Bell, Joseph Cameron and Andrew Lund, all employees of the Shawnigan Lake Lumber Company. Mr. G. H. Kenny was the only man rescued. He also is an employee of the same lumber company. The rescued man was in such an exhausted and hysterical state when pulled out of the water that he was unable to give a coherent account of the tragedy.

Mr. A. M. Wyde, who went to the rescue of the men, gave a graphic story of the incident, as far as his connection with it was concerned, during the course of an interview with The Colonist at Strathcona Lodge yesterday afternoon.

He said that Harry Bell had come in at about 9:30 p.m. to get the key to the garage to store his car for the night, having just driven in from Duncan with some friends. A little later Mr. Kenny arrived saying that he wanted to rent a boat with which to row across to the logging camp on the opposite side of the lake.

About 10:30 p.m. his daughter, Miss Victoria Wyde, who was standing on the veranda of Strathcona Lodge, heard cries for help and, rushing into her father, told him to hurry and get the launch out, because some one was drowning.

Mr. Wyde had his launch out and was under way when he saw the boat. At that time he was under the impression that only Mr. Kenny was in the boat. Making all speed in the direction of the cries for help, which were still coming across the lake, Mr. Wyde played his searchlight over the water. When nearly half way across to the logging camp, at a point about half a mile from either shore, his searchlight picked out the row boat practically submerged. Drawing nearer he perceived two men clinging to the craft, one at the bow and the other at the stern.

When within 100 feet of the row boat, Mr. Wyde slackened his speed to draw alongside. He hauled in Mr. Kenny, who was clinging to the stern, but when he went to pick up the other man the latter had dropped back into the water exhausted.

Mr. Kenny was completely worn out and drenched. Mr. Wyde stated and could not have lasted another four minutes. So hysterical was the man that he began to splash water over his rescuer and to laugh spasmodically.

Mr. Wyde told Mr. Wyde that he did not know how the boat had sunk beneath them, and that he had no idea of the cause of the tragedy. Mr. Wyde said that either "Andy" Lund or Joseph Cameron must have been clinging to the bow.

AN aerial survey of the Inner Harbor will shortly be made by the Dominion Government engineers, operating out of Jericho Station, Vancouver, according to an announcement made yesterday by Mr. J. P. Forde, district engineer for the Federal Government. The work will commence as soon as the planes have completed the survey of the lower end of the island, on which they are at present engaged.

DR. TOLMIE TO OPEN CAMPAIGN TONIGHT

BIG RALLY OF CONSERVATIVES TO BE HELD IN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AUDITORIUM

Mr. Leon Laidner, of Vancouver, will speak at meeting in interests of Minister of Agriculture

This evening in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, Hon. S. F. Tolmie will open his speaking campaign in the city. Mr. Leon Laidner, the conservative candidate for Vancouver South, will appear with the Minister of Agriculture at this opening meeting. Mr. Laidner, president of the Liberal-Conservative Association, will preside at the rally, which will open at 8 o'clock.

It is hoped that ladies wishing to hear the addresses of the speakers this evening will arrive early so that accommodation may be found for them. With every prospect of a very large attendance this evening, it is important that those wishing to secure seats arrive in good time.

Dr. Tolmie knows the situation in the Dominion of Canada, having in his capacity of national organizer for his party visited every part of the country. He is in a position to present the issues of the day as they affect the various sections of the country in a convincing way, and his address will be listened to with a great deal of interest by the voters of his home city, which he has served so well in the House of Commons.

Mr. Laidner, like Dr. Tolmie, has lived all his life in the Province of B.C. and is an able speaker on public questions.

It is the intention of the Conservative of the city to hold a number of ward meetings during the next two weeks intervening between now and election day. These meetings have not yet been arranged for, but will be announced immediately.

Frank Statement Made That If Given Protectorate Over Tangier, Luccini Seat May Go

GENEVA, Aug. 31.—Spain's frank official avowal that if she were given a protectorate over Tangier she would not insist on her claim for a permanent seat in the League of Nations council has provoked a sensation in League circles, where it now is openly predicted that Spain will resign. Weight is lent to this by Foreign Minister Tangaia's reported statement that if she failed to get satisfaction in Tangier, Spain would quit the League.

PANIC ON SHIP AS WATER RUSHES IN

Estimates of Loss of Life on Leningrad Steamer Continue to Grow—Vessel Ran Into Stone Pier

TWO HUNDRED PEOPLE BELIEVED DROWNED

First Officer Saves Himself While Wife and Two Children Lose Lives—Mob's Rush Sinks Lifeboat

CHRONSTADT, Russia, Aug. 31.—Estimates of the loss of life in the sinking of the steamer Leningrad continue to grow. It is reported now that more than 200 of the 563 passengers aboard were drowned in the foundering of the craft off the coast covered from the sunken wreck.

The little island fortress is plunged into deep sorrow as most of the victims were residents. They were mostly workmen and their families, returning from a holiday in Leningrad. Scarcely a family on the island escaped a loss. Up to noon today, more than thirty bodies had been recovered from the sunken wreck.

Acting Captain Saved Himself
The vessel, leaving Leningrad, had just emerged from the ship canal in a thick fog when a German freighter loomed out of the dark. To avoid the collision, the Russian ship was turned sharply and crashed into a stone pier, sending a great hole in her bow. She sank in less than fifteen minutes, and in the fog and darkness the work of rescue was greatly hampered.

The regular captain was not on board and the first officer, who was in charge, saved himself, but his wife and two children perished. They were looked in a cabin, the key to which the officer carried in his pocket.

Investigation shows that only one lifeboat and 172 lifebells were carried. When the vessel crashed into the pier, sailors rushed below, quieting the passengers with cries of "There is no danger. Most of the passengers then returned to their cabins, where they were when the rushing water overwhelmed the craft.

Wild Panic
In the wild panic that followed passengers clambered frantically up the slender masts of the steamer, which collapsed under the weight. A great mob rushed onto the pier, where the German freighter came to the rescue, and it sank under the numbers that jumped into it.

PROSPEROUS STATE OF CITY REVEALED

1926 BUILDING PERMITS EXCEED WHOLE OF LAST YEAR'S TOTAL BY $14,835

Gain of $148,723 Over Corresponding Period Last Year—Tax Payments Are Constantly Mounting

The city of Victoria, during the first eight months of the present year, has not only experienced a greater volume of building activity than has the corresponding period in 1925, but has shattered the mark attained for the whole of last year. This is a striking evidence of the general improvement of conditions and the progress of building in the city.

An inspection of the records of the City Building Inspector James Barf at the City Hall yesterday revealed the fact that the value of building permits issued during the first eight months of 1926, as compared with 1925, is a gain of $14,835 over the whole of last year.

Not only are substantial increases noted in the value of the permits of 1926 over last year, but gains have also occurred in the number of individual permits issued. During the initial eight months of 1925, 292 permits were taken out at the city building department, while, during the corresponding period in 1926, the number has risen to 347, an increase of fifty-five.

Development in the city is not only revealed in the matter of building permits, it is also reflected in the increase in the value of the permits of 1926 over last year, which has been a gain of $14,835 over the whole of last year.

SUPPORTERS FORCE KING GOVERNMENT TO INVESTIGATE FEDERAL DEPARTMENT

Mr. C. H. Dickie Exposes Weakness of Australian Treaty—Old Age Pensions Bill

The Customs scandal, with its particular application to trade conditions in Canada, was dealt with, among other questions by Mr. C. H. Dickie, conservative candidate in the Nanaimo riding at a well-attended meeting in the Temperance Hall, Nanaimo, last night. Hon. T. G. Covert and Mr. H. H. Stevens, Liberal supporters, Mr. Dickie in preliminary speeches. Mr. W. O. Wallace was chairman.

It was shown by Mr. Dickie how $30,000,000 in trade was lost to Canada through corruption in the Customs Department. "Unscrupulous merchants were selling goods at a price that could not be competed against, and it was only when a number of merchants, many of them prominent Liberals in the East, contributed toward a fund, with which they commissioned Mr. Sparks, another prominent Liberal, to investigate and find out how it was that goods were being smuggled into the country, that action was taken by the Liberal Government." Mr. Dickie asserted.

Action Was Taken
When the King Government learned that the Hon. H. H. Stevens was going to bring in a resolution asking that an investigation committee be appointed to look into Customs matters, action was taken. Not until then did the King Government make an attempt to clean up the Customs Department, although merchants for a long time had good reason to believe that goods were being smuggled into the country," the speaker said.

Mr. Dickie revealed how the Liberal party further attempted to keep control over the Customs scandal by "in order to cover up the waste management of maladministration of the board, these charges had to be increased," he continued, "and the people of Canada had to pay for it."

Under Liberal administration, Mr. Stevens declared, "handling charges have been increased 100 per cent, wharfage has increased from 25 cents to 50 cents and cargo rates have increased from one cent to six cents, or 500 per cent."

RATE REDUCTION IS ALL WASTED

UNDER LIBERAL HARBOUR BOARD SHIPPERS LOSE ADVANTAGE, SAYS MR. STEVENS

Charges Have Been Increased by the Amount of Reduction in Grain Rate From Prairies

VANCOUVER, Aug. 31.—The harbor board of Vancouver has increased its charges by the amount of the reduction in grain rates from the Prairies and Edmonton to the coast, and thereby wiped out all the advantages obtained by the reduction for which the British Columbia shippers fought so hard, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Customs, charged at a campaign meeting here tonight.

In order to cover up the waste management of maladministration of the board, these charges had to be increased," he continued, "and the people of Canada had to pay for it."

Assorted Payments Made by Germany

Goods Delivered on Reparation Installment Vary From Coal to Kitchen Ranges

BERLIN, Aug. 31.—Germany met nearly fifty per cent of her reparations payments in the second year of the operation of the Dawes plan ending today by means of deliveries of materials. This will be shown in the report of H. Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparations payment which will be published about November 15.

The total payments amounted to 125,000,000 gold marks (about $250,000,000), and the deliveries in kind 456,000,000 gold marks (about $154,314,000).

The goods delivered in the Allies varied from coal to lion traps, from dyestuffs to kitchen ranges from electric breakers for motor cycles to roadsters from candy parking machines to Bavarian hops from bottle washers to trout spawn and from clear moulds to cotton gins.

More than one-third of these deliveries were of coal, coke and lignite.

Montreal Accords Record Audience to Conservative Leader

Mr. Patenaude Says Party Has Found Leader Worthy of Its Traditions—Mr. Meighen Calls for Stable Protective Tariff and Stable Government—Group System Denounced

Liberals Stir Up Prairies Against Tariff They Know to Be Vital

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—Conservatives of Montreal thronged the Forum building tonight to hear Premier Meighen and Hon. E. L. Patenaude open their election campaigns in this part of the Dominion. Three-fourths of the big auditorium was filled with an audience which was rounded out by a hundred of the distinguished visitors on the stage. These included many of the Conservative candidates from Quebec Province, and prominent in the front row were Sir Alfred and Lady Mould, prominent in British politics.

The Conservative leaders were accorded a record audience. There were interruptions from time to time but they were all in friendly vein. Mr. Patenaude said that he had endorsed Mr. Meighen's leadership because he believed the time had come when he was doing so he could better fulfill his duty to Quebec Province and to himself the spoke of the wheel of the conservative leader as the man who would lead the party on to fulfillment of its traditions.

Czecho-Slovakian Will Preside Over Assembly

PREMIER MEIGHEN RECEIVED A GREAT ovation. He began in French. He expressed confidence in the success of his party in the coming election. The Conservatives are strong and is visible from the Atlantic to the Pacific, he said.

Relating into English he said his opponent maintained a sort of "savage hatchery" from which they circulated rumors intended to keep the Government on their feet, and that there would be no time to glance at the shortcomings of the Liberals.

Mr. Meighen denied the rumor he was present at a political picnic in North York, when a Conservative speaker was said to have suggested that immigrants of the first generation be denied Canadian franchise. Mr. Meighen said that he did not consider himself bound by any but his own settled and expressed policy of his party. The Conservative party, he said, was ready to welcome all good citizens in Canadian shores.

Passing to the War Time Election Act, Mr. Meighen said that the Government of that day had done was to withhold the franchise from residents in Canada who were exempt from war service because they were of enemy alien origin.

Immigration Policy
The Liberals, he said, were now trying to slander his party because this had been done. The immigration policy of the Conservative Government was "to provide a sure base of employment for those already here. No sane and sensible effort would be spared to secure the best immigration welcome to Canada and such immigrants would be forthcoming as such as the conditions of Canadian industry asked their presence in the Dominion."

Mr. Meighen then took up what he described as the most vital of all topics, the tariff.

His fiscal policy, he said, "has not differed tonight from what it had since 1913 had promised the West free trade. In an endeavor to 'head off' the 'Progressive' party," the Liberals in 1913 adopted a 'Progressive' programme as their own, and since then had raised the West to a state of agitation against the policy which they knew was vital to the very industrial existence of their country."

The result of the election last year, said Mr. Meighen, reversed the Liberal majority by a popular vote of 200,000.

If Quebec had supported the Liberal party, or rather the Mackenzie King party, it was not because of the fiscal question, but because of the tariff. It was not because of the fiscal question, but because of the tariff.

He went on to explain how even Progressive members voted to censure the Government, much as they disliked the Conservative party.

ISLAND CAPITAL LARGELY RUINED

Populace Afraid to Return to Homes and Is Living in the Open—Tidal Wave Followed Earthquake

EARLIER REPORTS ARE SAID TO EXAGGERATE

Truth Is Bad Enough—Lisbon Telegraph Offices Crowded With Relatives and Friends Seeking News

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The town of Horta, capital of the island of Fayal, of the central group of the Azores, was partly destroyed by an earthquake today. The first shock, brief advice received here says, occurred about 11 a.m. This was followed by a series of shocks, some of a minor nature, which affected both Fayal and the neighboring islands, accompanied by a tidal wave that swept the small village of Petreia.

The Governor of the Horta district, cabling to the Lisbon Government, the island being a Portuguese possession—estimates the total casualties at about fifty, which is believed to include killed and injured. The Governor's dispatch, however, which was sent in French, employs the term "victims" and this may possibly imply fifty killed.

Another private report gave the number of killed as six, with many injured.

Early Reports Exaggerated

Although early dispatches, stating that Horta was in ruins seem to have been an exaggeration, it would appear from all reports that Horta suffered great damage, and that the populace, fearing further shocks and afraid to return to their homes, are living in the open. The Portuguese Government has sent assistance by fast warships.

Coincidentally Greece today was shaken by a strong earthquake. The entire country felt the shocks. Ten casualties were reported. The damage is said not to have been great.

The Azores Islands are of volcanic origin and at various times have been shaken by earthquakes. Today's disturbance was described as one of the heaviest in many years.

Earlier Report

LISBON, Portugal, Aug. 31.—The island of Fayal is described in a message from the Mayor as "a mass of ruins, especially the city of Horta."

The injured in the earthquake are estimated by some at 400.

The Mayor's message came through after hours of silence and much anxiety over the fate of the Portuguese on the Azores Islands devastated by the earthquake.

The aspect of Fayal Island, and the suffering of the victims, says the brief cablegram, were terrible to witness. The catastrophe defied all description.

No mention is made in the message of the number of killed.

A sanitary column left for the Azores this morning on a merchant steamer commandeered by the Government. This was to be followed immediately by troops and engineers corps and three warships.

All through the afternoon and evening the Central Telegraph offices in Lisbon were crowded with those having relatives or friends in the Azores, but only the most meagre information was received, indicating in itself the extent of the disaster.

At Goncalves Observatory

Earthquake shocks which shook Horta, in the Azores yesterday morning, were received here but could not well be defined, according to a report from the Meteorological Observatory at Goncalves Heights.

The report said that the maximum waves arrived at 3:15 a.m. yesterday. The record continued for one hour, but it was not pronounced.

Today Is Due Date For Instalments on Auction Sale Buys

TODAY is the due date for the fifteen per cent cash payment on the lands purchased at the city auction sale this year, while also due today is the half-yearly instalment on lands acquired by buyers at the 1925 city auction sale.

The City Lands Department experienced a very busy day yesterday, receiving a substantial amount of money from purchasers of property at the two auction sales that the City of Victoria has conducted. It is anticipated that there will be another big rush at the land office at the City Hall today.

About five per cent of the buyers at the year's auction have saved interest by paying their obligations in full.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 31.—L. Beaubien, Liberal-Progressive candidate, was elected by acclamation in Provencher constituency today. Dr. D. H. McFadden, Conservative candidate, did not appear to file nomination papers. A representative, carrying nomination papers of Dr. McFadden left here by automobile this morning to file the papers with the returning officer for Provencher. He had not been heard from late this afternoon, and owing to the condition of the roads following a night of heavy rain, may have met with some mishap.

G.T.P. DISPUTE IS AT LAST SETTLED

RECENTLY APPOINTED COMMITTEE APPARENTLY REACHES SUCCESSFUL ISSUE

It included Sir Robert Horne, C.P.R. Director, and Ex-Chancellor of Exchequer

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—When shown a London dispatch to the effect that the dispute between the Grand Trunk Pacific shareholders' committee and the Canadian National Railway, relative to the status of the four per cent debenture stock of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway had been settled, Sir Henry Thornton, chairman and president of the Canadian National Railway, stated the information was correct, but the terms of settlement between the committee and the railway would have to be submitted to the stockholders for ratification.

London Dispatch

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The Exchange Telegraph today reported that the dispute between the stockholders' committee and the Canadian National Railway, regarding the status of the four per cent debenture stock of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, have been settled and that a full, official statement of the terms of settlement will be published Thursday.

This apparently brings to an end a long and bitter controversy that has raged at intervals, particularly in London's financial press, for more than six years.

Holders of the debenture stocks complained that they received no payment of interest while at the same time such payments were being made to holders of securities whose claims were secondary to theirs. In reply, it was pointed out that their complaints should be directed to their representatives who made the agreement in accord with which this was done. So far as the Canadian National was concerned, it was fulfilling completely the terms of an agreement under which more than full value was being paid for the properties taken over.

Recently a committee was appointed, on which Sir Robert Horne and Mr. Peacock had places, to endeavor to reach some amicable settlement. The efforts of the committee appear to have been successful.

HARBOR BOARD USED TO BRIBE VOTERS

Mr. Stevens Charges That Large Numbers of Men Are Employed Merely to Buy Votes

VANCOUVER, Aug. 31.—In his speech tonight Mr. Stevens criticized the expenditures in the Port of Vancouver.

Continuing he exclaimed: "There are 814 employees of the Harbor Board on the regular payroll, and according to the tonnage on the basis of the number employed under the Conservative regime, there should be 114. They are like the Mexican army, all generals and no privates. There are engineers and superintendents, assistant superintendents and sub-superintendents, and so on, but only six shovel handlers appear on the list."

"I have been told that just now anyone who wants a job in the harbor election can get it on the waterfront, if he joins the Liberal Association."

Voices: "That's right. You have to pay fifty cents when you join the association and you can get a job."

In concluding, Mr. Stevens declared: "The time will come very soon when the Harbor Board will be brought to book for these losses to the people of Canada. A report is now on the way to Ottawa. I don't know what it is, but I have not seen it. But I do know that after September 14 there's going to be a reckoning."

of the boat. Mr. Kenny was in such a condition, however, that he was unable to give a clear account of what had happened.

The boat in which the men were rowing across the lake was built to hold only three men. It was a steel craft with air compartments in the bow in stern. The first two men were four men and a small black dog in the boat was sufficient to make the trip dangerous, as the sunwale of the boat would then only be about two inches above the water. Mr. Wyde explained.

Car-Lock Missing

In his opinion the accident was due to some shifting in the boat. The carlocks were securely tied in place, but when the boat was brought in, one of them was missing. Mr. Wyde believed that one of the men had untied this carlock and then only by putting it into the forward socket and taking one of the oars. The movement must have tilted the boat, causing the water to flow in and swamp the craft.

Mr. Harry Bell, who was well known at Shawnigan Lake, leaves to mourn his loss his widow, his mother and father and one brother. He was a young man of twenty-eight years of age. Mr. Andrew Lund was thirty-two years of age, and unmarried. He

LIBERAL CANDIDATE BELIEVES IN PROTECTION FOR STAPLE INDUSTRY

Mr. C. H. O'Halloran Makes Declaration in Centre of Coal Mining Industry

NANAIMO, Aug. 31.—Addressing an audience of about one hundred people here last night, Mr. C. H. O'Halloran, Liberal candidate for Nanaimo riding in the forthcoming Dominion elections, spoke for an hour and a half on campaign issues, and gave reasons why, in his opinion, the Liberal Government will be returned to power. Mr. T. Morton acted as chairman, and Mr. T. B. Booth, former Liberal candidate, spoke for half an hour previous to Mr. O'Halloran's address.

Mr. O'Halloran first of all discussed old age pensions and state health insurance. Dealing with state health insurance, the speaker stated this was very closely allied with the old age pension scheme. He was very much in favor of the insurance plan, and whether elected or not, would continue to work for it.

Speaking of reduction on automobiles, Mr. O'Halloran said all had been benefited by this measure.

Discussing the coal situation, the speaker said: "I am acquainted with the coal situation on the island, and especially with present conditions in Nanaimo, and I am fully in accord with a fuel oil tax. I want to make this statement publicly, and I believe that puts me on record." This, thought the speaker, would be one solution for an improvement. But there was another. He believed that if the companies or Government were in a position to conduct research work within the next ten or twelve years, it would be found that the by-products of coal would prove an asset, the value of which is not dreamed of now.

After dealing with the tariff question fully, and a few remarks relative to local conditions, and an expression of confidence of the return of the King Government, Mr. O'Halloran concluded his address by singing a hymn brought to a close by singing of "God Save the King."

their tour in British Columbia. This statement said:

Crop Situation

"In consequence of the satisfactory crops of the past three years and the almost assured good crop of this year, the conditions in Western Canada are better than at any time since the war. Whether the East can keep pace with the West will depend upon the ability of its industries to secure a larger proportion of the home market and also increase their exports."

Asked with regard to conditions in Great Britain and the possibility of increased trade between the Dominion and the Motherland, Mr. Beatty stated that "Conditions in Great Britain are entirely abnormal, due to the existing coal strike, the direct and indirect losses of which must of necessity have been enormous.

"Until this has been settled on a basis which will restore the economic stability of that very essential industry, it would be, I think, somewhat hazardous to prophesy an improvement in British trade conditions. There exists in Great Britain the greatest confidence in the stability of the industries of the nation to successfully come through this trying and expensive period, but until a proper solution is established between wages paid on the one hand and the ability of the industries to render service rendered for them on the other, the situation must remain embarrassing and the results to trade uncertain.

Immigration Prospects
"There are many ways in which immigration can be further encouraged," Mr. Beatty said when discussing this subject, "the principal being the provision in Great Britain of additional training farms for agriculturists, these to be sufficient in number to enable a steady supply of many thousands of young Englishmen, who are physically fit and who have been trained in the rudiments of agriculture. When conditions become a little more definitely settled industrially, it is more than likely that the immigration of skilled artisans can likewise be encouraged, but definite policies in these respects will probably have to wait until the present elections are over.

Electricification
"The electrification of the mountain lines, in respect of which extensive investigations have been made during the past few days, will depend somewhat upon the experiments now being made in the use of Diesel electric engines in railway motive power. The problem of the company is a relatively simple one, in that some method of increasing the capacity of our lines in the mountains will ultimately be necessary, and that which involves the least initial outlay and the largest saving in operating expenses is the one which will be eventually selected. The work will not, of course, in any event be prosecuted until traffic conditions warrant it.

"The 1926 construction programme in the West is proceeding satisfactorily and, when completed, will add 165 miles to the company's lines, principally in Alberta and Saskatchewan."

LONDON COMMENTS ON BAKER ARTICLE

EX-SECRETARY IS ONE OF POLITICALLY UNPOPULAR BUT FAR-SEEING GROUP

Daily News Thinks There Is No Real Prospect of Cancellation Being Issue of Near Future

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Commenting on the suggestion made by Mr. Newton D. Baker, former United States Secretary of War, that the United States cancel war debts owed by foreign nations, The Daily News, in a leading article today, describes Mr. Baker as the "latest recruit to the politically unpopular, but far-seeing group of debt cancellers."

The Daily News goes on to say that a Great Britain is less likely than some continental nations to entertain any illusive hope of a change in America's war debt policy, merely because a leading American statesman or business man comes into the open, advocating mutual cancellation of allied debts and reduction of Germany's reparations burden.

Mr. Baker, it says, puts the case forcibly from the viewpoint of an enlightened national self-interest.

Not Issue of Near Future
"Let us," it continues, "derive all the satisfaction possible from the reflection that responsible Americans are thinking along these lines and expressing such opinions courageously in public, but it would be foolish to pretend that the view Mr. Baker sets forth prevails to any large extent outside United States banking and business circles. There is not the slightest hope that the debts question will be an issue at all in the 1928 elections."

The time must come, The Daily News thinks, when America will be compelled to drastically revise its war debt policy as a result of the slow pressure of the economic circumstances and the clear thinking of long-headed American citizens.

OLIVE BRANCH IS WAVED IN HOUSE

MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL MAKES TEMPERATE SPEECH IN BRITISH HOUSE

Intimation Is Made That Government Will Agree to National Settlement Despite Owners

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The brief session of Parliament which closed this afternoon achieved nothing toward a settlement of the coal strike.

Should the strike continue another month, Parliament must be reconvened to sanction a renewal of the emergency regulations. Otherwise it stands adjourned until November 9.

Today the opposition leaders reproached the Government for its negative attitude in the coal disputes. Its support of the mine owners and its failure to begin negotiations for a settlement. The Government leaders reported that the Government is powerless to intervene as long as the miners refuse to budge a single inch. Mr. Hon. Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in an unusually temperate speech, intimated that the Government might support a national settlement, even against the wishes of the mine owners, if the workers would only be reasonable on the question of wages and hours. Nothing has come of the joint meeting today of the Miners' Executive and Labor Party leaders, and Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's efforts to prevent a renewal of the emergency regulations proved abortive. The leaders of the workers met again today and by a narrow majority voted to formulate no new proposals, but to wait the decision of the union delegates on Thursday.

STANDEAD, Que., Aug. 31.—Conservatives in the Quebec constituency of Stanstead have decided not to nominate a candidate in the coming elections and Mr. W. K. Baldwin, Liberal, who has represented the riding in Parliament since 1917, may, therefore, be elected by acclamation.

The Conservatives recently approached Dr. J. C. Colby and offered him the nomination. Dr. Colby declined suddenly last week. An effort was then made to get Mr. John T. Hackett, K.C., Montreal, the unsuccessful candidate in the last election, to run again, but Mr. Hackett was unable to accept the nomination.

OTTAWA, Aug. 31.—Thirty-four dead persons were found to be on the voters' list of St. Charles Home for the Aged after investigation of Returning Officer Charlebois following appeals against 248 inmates of the home being allowed to vote. Of the 248 names protested, only eighty-three were allowed to remain on the list, as they were either paying or working for their keep. Of the names struck off the list, thirty-four were dead, seven were inmates of an asylum, 102 were paupers, and the remainder were duplicates.

Will Your New Chesterfield Be A Banquet for Moths or Mothproof?

A CHESTERFIELD or a big upholstered chair is a favorite breeding ground and a veritable banquet for moths and their progeny.

If the covering is not to their liking, they crawl, sneak or burrow into the interior and do their nefarious work out of sight—unless the fillings are mothproof.

The damage a single female moth can be the cause of is well-nigh unbelievable.

Grubs from One Female Can Destroy 100 lbs. of Wool

Scientists say that the young grubs of a single female moth can destroy 100 lbs. of wool in a year. Each moth-worm increases its original weight 365 times in the ninety days it exists, before it spins a casing and turns into a moth.

Spraying poison onto the covering of a Chesterfield is only a makeshift proposition. It leaves the interiors unprotected—an easy prey to moths. And, even if the fillings as well as the exteriors were sprayed or dipped in a moth poison, the poison would evaporate in time.

For example: Arsenic dries into dust and evaporates in the air. Gasoline kills moths, but it, also, evaporates.

The only way to make coverings and interiors permanently mothproof is not to use a poison but to make the materials permanently uneatable by moth-worms.

If moth-worms cannot eat, they cannot live. They cannot live and grow unless they can find an ingredient known to science by the name of "keratin." This "keratin" is contained in wool, feathers, hair, fur, bristles and many other materials. "Keratin" is to a moth-worm what milk is to a baby. Absolutely indispensable.

Moth Worms Cannot Exist

The industrial chemists and scientists who, after years of research, discovered and perfected the mothproofing process used by Snyder's Limited, found a chemical compound that would change this "keratin" and make it uneatable to moth-worms for the entire life of the fabric. Moth-worms simply cannot exist on a material given this mothproofing treatment, because, lacking "keratin," there is no food in it for them. Death from starvation is their immediate and certain fate.

We guarantee the permanence of our mothproofing. We give you a printed and signed Guarantee. Read it. It fully protects you. You cannot lose. You are absolutely safe when you select a Snyder "Sani-Bilt" Chesterfield and Upholstered Chairs.

SUGGESTS CHANGE OF COUNCIL TIME

MAYOR PENDRAY URGES HOLDING REGULAR SESSION ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Will Seek City Council's Approval at This Week's Meeting—May Experiment Until End of Year

Evening sessions of the City Council may soon become a thing of the past. Departure from the usual custom of holding the regular meetings on Friday afternoons at 2:30 or 4 o'clock, strongly advocated by Mayor Carl Pendray.

His Worship told The Colonist last night that on Friday next, when a special session of the Council will be held, because Monday is Labor Day, a public holiday, he will lay before the City Fathers his proposal and endeavor to obtain their support for it.

The Mayor's project, if adopted, would be in the nature of an experiment, and would not be given a trial until the end of the present year.

"The holding of City Council meetings in the afternoon, instead of at night would be productive of more efficiency in the conduct of Council business, I think. The Council could complete its business with greater rapidity, and it would not be necessary to have city officials coming back to the City Hall at night, as is the custom now with Monday evening sessions," stated His Worship.

While the public works and lands committees usually convene in weekly session on Friday afternoons, if the change went into effect, these two committee sessions could be held prior to the regular City Council meeting. It is stated that if the City Council decides to carry out Mayor Pendray's suggestion, Victoria will not be the first city to have such a plan in operation. The Vancouver City Council does give a night meeting, but transacts its business at afternoon meetings. And other cities do likewise.

PUBLICITY WORKERS TO MEET ON FRIDAY

Tourist Trade Group and Publicity Bureau Will Gather at Luncheon Meeting This Week

The tourist trade group of the Chamber of Commerce together with the members of the Victoria Publicity Bureau, will meet at a luncheon gathering on Friday. The occasion of the gathering will be the presence in the city of Mr. Harold Gray, executive secretary of the Puget Sound and British Columbia Publicity Association, and Mr. Charles Webster, of that city, publicity commissioner of that city.

There will be no meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce this week. The Puget Sound and British Columbia Associations have done a great work for the last few years in cooperative advertising of the cities of the northwestern part of the Pacific coast and the gathering on Friday will afford an opportunity for those who are directly interested in the work to get into a way of doing what is being done in this direction.

The luncheon will be held in the dining-room of the Chamber of Commerce and a large attendance of members of the organizations that are meeting is expected.

The Rhyming Optimist

By Aline Michaelis

There is glamor and good in just living that a kismet might be glad to feel, life brims over with cause for thanksgiving when I get out my rod and my reel. When I answer the river's calling where the shadows lie thick and cool and the water goes tumbling, falling to the depths of a crystal pool; when the low of the distant cattle drifts over the high hills' crest, and a wayward trout gives battle, then life fills with its old-time zest. Then I know I have ended my questing for the best that old Earth can give and am fishing for drawing and resting. I find it is bliss—just to live. Oh, such gladness waits, never-ending, as a king would give realm to the fish of the stream descending, in the magic of rod and reel.

DRIVE FOR YOUNG MEN IS LAUNCHED

Chamber of Commerce Seeks Kiwanis Support in Membership Expansion Campaign

An appeal to the Victoria Kiwanis Club to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce in the latter's plan to extend the scope of the Chamber by organizing a young men's section was made to the Kiwanis organization yesterday by Mr. C. P. W. Schwenger, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Schwenger told the Kiwanians that the Chamber desired the active support of the Kiwanis, Rotary and Glee Clubs in its latest move, and believed that the Chamber of Commerce in Victoria would benefit greatly through the acquisition of more young men to its membership.

"I am not satisfied with the attainments of the Chamber of Commerce, and I believe that much can be done to improve the results if we secure the interest and support of the young people," Mr. Schwenger said.

The speaker observed that the officers of the Chamber now had in preparation a plan for the organization's expansion to include the young men of the city.

"We must reach our young men that this is a city where they must work to attain success, and that in cooperation lies the road to advancement of the community as a whole," concluded the Chamber leader.

President H. C. Nicholas, of the Kiwanis Club, endorsed the active support of the Chamber of Commerce, and expressed the hope that the young men of the city would rally to the call for support, and thus materially aid in the Chamber of Commerce's Victoria's great progressive mission.

HON. T. D. PATTULLO GOES FORTH TO WAR

Minister of Lands, Who Has Been Keeping Watch at Parliament Buildings, to Have Turn

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, after speaking in the Yale ring in the Liberal interests, has for the last two days been the solitary representative of the Provincial Government on duty in the Parliament Buildings. He, however, is to be relieved of his vigil and will embark also upon a political mission in aid of the Federal Liberal party.

The Premier, Hon. John Oliver, will return this morning after having been again engaged in paying his respects to Brigadier-General A. D. McRae, his traditional political enemy in North Vancouver.

The Minister of Finance, Hon. J. D. MacLean, will also be back today. Mr. Pattullo will be at Sidney on Thursday evening aiding Mr. C. H. O'Halloran in the Nanaimo riding, and on Friday night will speak for Mr. O'Halloran at Duncan. He then leaves at the end of the week for the North, to render assistance to Mr. Fred Stork, stopping off on the way to address a meeting at Powell River, where he will endeavor to win some votes for the Provincial Government.

Mr. Pattullo has a reputation for casting honeyed words aside when he enters a campaign, and promises that he will restore to his reputation in this respect on his tour of the Province. There will be no "pussy-footing" on the questions of the day, says the Minister of Lands.

D. A. Smith, who is in charge of the Chinese work throughout Canada for the Presbyterial Church, and the Rev. Dr. Clay, who will report on the work of the general assembly, which he attended as a commissioner.

Reports that have to be heard during Presbytery today include the report on home and foreign missions, given by the Rev. Dr. Clay; on church life and work, by the Rev. D. Walker, and that by Mr. Thos. Humphreys concerning the year's docket of business.

Consideration of the approaching Winter's work, of the appointment of men to look after the church's different interests, etc., will be given.

One important matter which is to come before the meeting is that relating to the church and manse board. Before the separation movement took place the church and manse board had been a single body, and required for the building of church and manse. But pending the meeting of the Dominion commission re-

Finest Vintage Wines Hungary's Liquid Assets

BUDAPEST, Aug. 31.—Among Hungary's most valuable "liquid assets," former Commissioner-General Jeremiah Smith found, were 10,000,000 bottles of the finest vintage wines, which the Government was willing to sell at one-fourth their former prices. Among these were a million bottles of the famous Tokay wines, produced only in Hungary, which could have been bought for a dollar a bottle.

Before the war Hungary was a great wine-producing and consuming country. Its citizens drank freely of the delicate, amber-colored wine from the slopes of the famous Tokay mountains. But the Great War brought an end to all this conviviality, and the average Hungarian is now content to drink beer or even plain water.

Edward's mother had found it necessary to punish him by whipping him severely. His cries brought ready tears to her eyes, and she informed him that it hurt her just as much as it did him.

REMARKABLE GOOD BEING DONE

Among Sick Women of Canada by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here are Four Who Testify To That Fact

Sea View, Cape Breton, N.S.—"By reading the letters in one of your books I understand that a great many women sufferers have got relief by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I can say that my mother has taken it and has given it to me in my younger days for monthly troubles. I was working at service then and could not go to work sometimes for a week at a time, and then felt miserable enough. I could not be in a worse state than I was then. My mother said to get the Vegetable Compound, and I did, and it helped me. I am now married going on to five years and have two lovely children. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends."—Mrs. CHARLES A. PATTIE, Sea View P.O., Cape Breton, N.S.

"My Girl Friend Took It"
Ridgeway, Ontario.—"For over a year I suffered from pain each month that would drive me almost mad. My mother suggested Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as my girl friend was taking it and told me it would do me good. I took several bottles of the Vegetable Compound and I soon began to improve. I have since taken it again to make me stronger. I will answer any letters I receive asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. W. L. LAM, R. R. 1, Ridgeway, Ontario.

"Nervous Breakdown"
Feltzen South, N. S.—"About two years ago I took sick and had a doctor called in. I was nervous and did not want to stay alone. He said I had a nervous breakdown. One day a friend called to see me and advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did. I felt through my whole body that it was doing me good. I am at the age now when those queer feelings come around and I can say that I am well. I cannot appreciate too highly what the Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA M. WILKINSON, Feltzen South, Nova Scotia.

WATSON SEARCH STILL BAFFLING TO POLICE

No Clue as to Whereabouts of Missing Man, Who Disappeared August 23, Yet Furnished

Although a thorough and systematic search has been conducted for Mr. James Watson, who mysteriously disappeared from his home on August 23, city and Saanich police admit that they are without a possible clue as to the whereabouts of the missing man.

A theory was advanced by the man's daughter that he may be wandering in the vicinity of Lake Hill, Saanich, or possibly farther west across the old Saanich Road. Mr. Watson, according to his daughter, had frequently suffered from loss of memory, and was inclined to take long walks in the country.

It was definitely established that the missing man called at a residence at Cedar Hill on the day of his disappearance. Since then he has not been seen.

REV. MR. GOARD SPEAKS BEFORE BIG AUDIENCE

Visiting Pastor Speaks on Bible and Science from Standpoint of Modern Astronomy

More than 500 persons attended a lecture given last night at King's Hall by the Rev. William Pascoe Goard, F.R.G.S., who spoke on the Bible and Science from a standpoint of modern astronomy.

Mr. Goard said: "The nebular hypothesis is anticipated in the first chapter of Genesis. The second chapter, the formation period, grows naturally out of the first and succeeds it as part of the same story. The first chapter is in the realm of physics and the second chapter is in the realm of psychology."

"A third section of the creation story proceeds out of the first and second in logical order commencing with the fifth chapter of Genesis and is in the realm of history and religion. There are not several accounts of the creation, but one account told in three orderly sections."

Mr. Goard said that certain major positions assumed by modern geologists a generation ago are now found to be untenable. These were reviewed in succession, he said, and the consequence of this is that the whole matter of the Bible and science must be reviewed.

Mr. Goard is editor of The National Message, the official organ of the British-Israeli World Federation.

ESQUIMALT TRUSTEES DISCUSS INSPECTOR

Matter of Joint Official for Municipal Boards Will Be Considered at Conference

The Esquimalt School Board held its monthly meeting last evening, when Mr. V. Y. Hobbs, chairman of the Saanich School Board, was present and explained the objects which were in view in connection with the proposed plan for a joint inspector of the schools of Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt.

After discussing the matter, it was decided by the members of the Esquimalt Board to appoint a committee to go into the question with a like committee from the other Boards.

Arrangements were made at the meeting for the opening of the schools on Tuesday next. This will include the High School as well as the other schools. It was urged by the principal that some pupils wishing to enrol attend on the opening on Tuesday, so as to facilitate the work of the schools.

The principals will welcome visitors to the schools on the opening day.

While the High School will open on Tuesday and the work of the school will continue from that day, the formal opening will be delayed for some time. The interior of the school has been completely renovated and is still some of the exterior work to be done.

Placing of Children in Institutions Is Condemned

Secretary of Council on Child Welfare Soundly Scores Practice—Neglected Kiddies Now Held Number 22,000

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—The placing of neglected children in institutions, except as a temporary shelter or receiving home, was soundly condemned by Miss Charlotte Whitton, secretary of the Canadian Council on Child Welfare and assistant on Child Welfare to the League of Nations, in an address on "The Care of the Neglected Child," delivered to 118 clergymen and their wives attending the Summer School for Rural Improvement now in session at Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue.

Pointing out that there are approximately 22,000 children in Canadian institutions at the present time, Miss Whitton declared that "most of our Canadian institutions today have scores of children who should never have been placed there, in the first instance, but left in their own homes and scores more who should have known the institutions only as a receiving home and passed out into the more natural life of the boarding or free home."

"There are approximately 22,000 children in our Canadian institutions today. That number alone is large enough to indicate the degree to which institutional care is being utilized for merely temporary relief that too often merges gradually into permanent dependency. Direct supplemental assistance to enable the widow to keep her children with her, to enable the husband and widower to engage household help in the case of his wife's illness or death, is a wise social economy from the economic as well as the human values of calculation."

"Preserving family life, the highest and finest product of civilization, must not be broken for reasons of poverty, but only for reasons of immorality, or immorality," the speaker said at the outset, quoting the opinion expressed at the White House Conference of 1909 which in her opinion provided the rule which should guide them in their consideration of the neglected child.

Miss Whitton spoke earnestly of the care with which every case should be investigated before a decision to disrupt the family was taken. She urged plumbing the depths of the symptoms of trouble, and pointed out that the problem should not be regarded as a detached one. The children must not be considered as a group but must be considered naturally with due regard to their habitat, the family and that family in its setting, environment and heredity. Inquiry should proceed along the line of thought of whether the child was in real danger and whether that danger could be removed by the causative effects remedied—in other words, could those aspects of the situation which threaten the child be satisfactorily met without disrupting the family group.

Declaring that "blood is thicker than water" was an adage that might well be graven above the desk of every worker in the field of child neglect and dependency, Miss Whitton pointed out that as in transplanting plants there was inevitably some loss, so in the disrupting of family life there was inevitable loss. The child should be preserved at all costs, but the cost of the child, and when to serve his interests it was necessary to disrupt the family, he should be given the nearest substitute possible to the home. "And in the consideration of the child, greater importance should be placed on the child's life than on the materialistic gauge of our modern predatory culture. Human values as well as material values must enter into our estimate of the situation. Conceivably a child may be happier, his ultimate and natural development be finer in the self-discipline, love and mutual struggle of his own home than in the wealth, pampering and apocalyptic affection of a luxurious foster home.

"For this reason, no province should allow the transfer of children, either for private placement, adoption, institutional commitment, etc., from one person to another, even from a parent to another person, or organization, unless with the knowledge and consent of an official or agency duly authorized by the province."

When every effort had failed and realization came that the child must be provided with care outside its own family, the institutional aspect of the service should be restricted to a receiving home and problem case service.

Generally speaking, the groups for which care outside the home had to be found were abandoned children and foundlings, of whose parents no trace could be found, children deserted by both parents with like improbability of location, the neglected child whose family rehabilitation had fallen down seventy-seven times; the problem child and the defective child whose special training could not be provided within the resources of the home or community. Of the above groups, only a small proportion could be classed as problem cases. All the others were normal children, asking only decent home life from the community. "And why should that not be given to them?" the speaker demanded. "Why should they be gathered into large groups, reared in institutions that could be like no home on earth and have their lives ordered by rote and bell?"

Citing the Toronto Infants' Home in illustration of the health aspect of this question, Miss Whitton quoted figures showing that the Toronto Infants' Home had reduced the mortality rate by the adoption of private boarding houses from 42.2 per cent on children admitted in 1913, to 2.2 in 1923-24, and less than 1 per cent in 1925.

As illustrating the financial aspect, the speaker cited the Catholic Welfare Bureau, of Toronto, in three years' application of family work principles to their child welfare problem, reduced the number of children in their institution from 422 in 1914, about 75 to 80 per cent of whom were replaced in their own homes or families. This enabled the bureau to transform one of its orphanages into a much-needed hospital.

A further illustration cited was the work of the Children's Aid Society of Toronto, which last year had 1,052 cases in its care, of whom forty-seven only were in the shelter, eighteen of them temporary cases. Eight hundred and six were wards of the society, of whom 665 were in free homes and forty-three boarded out in family homes.

FIND MANY USES FOR MILKWEED PLANT

Chemist Perfects Processes for Turning Noxious Weed to Several Useful Purposes.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Aug. 31.—After seven years' research and experiment with the root, stalk and flower of the milkweed, William J. Herbold, chemist, of this city, announces that he has discovered twenty-two uses for the plant and that he has perfected processes to use it in making several products.

Chief among the milkweed products are paper surgical dressings, which he says will displace the cotton now in use, various kinds of fibre for textile and silk industries, a form of celluloid, glucose, cattle food, fertilizer and rubber.

Patents are pending on the equipment made by Mr. Herbold for manufacturing the products. The weed has an advantage over other materials for making paper in that it does not have to be bleached, and can be made into bond as well as rougher grades, according to Mr. Herbold. He says it is finer than flax.

The chemist expects that the surgical dressing, soft as fleece, will in time displace that now used. The material is feathery light, softer than silk and pure white.

From another part of the weed Mr. Herbold has obtained two grades of fibre, one for textile manufacturing and the other for silk making. He has samples of several grades of both. The glucose is edible and obtained from the root of the weed. It may be used for purposes requiring glucose, and is so pure that, after certain properties have been extracted, it may be eaten like maple syrup and has a similar taste, the chemist says.

Canada Has Substantial Trade With British Guiana

During 1925 the total trade of British Guiana was $28,200,000, or half a million less than in 1924, writes Trade Commissioner James Cornack, Port of Spain, in the forthcoming issue of The Commercial Intelligence Journal. Imports during that period amounted to approximately $13,900,000, while exports were $14,240,000, or a decrease of 10 per cent in exports and an increase of 6 per cent in imports.

Russell Water Colors

Still on View Here

The water color paintings by Russell, which were on exhibition during the Fair, will be on exhibition at 305 Union Bank Building by Mrs. Parker for about ten days and afterwards will be sent to New Westminster to be put on exhibition during the Westminster Fair.

These paintings were made by the artist on commission by the British Government during the war, to be used for recruiting purposes, and depict actual incidents. The sketches are for sale during the ten days in which they will be on exhibition before they are sent to the Mainland.

The magistrate was hearing a case in court in which two women were concerned.

"What is your complaint against defendant?" he inquired of the plaintiff.

"Please, your worship," was the reply, "she called me a fool, and I have witnesses to prove it."

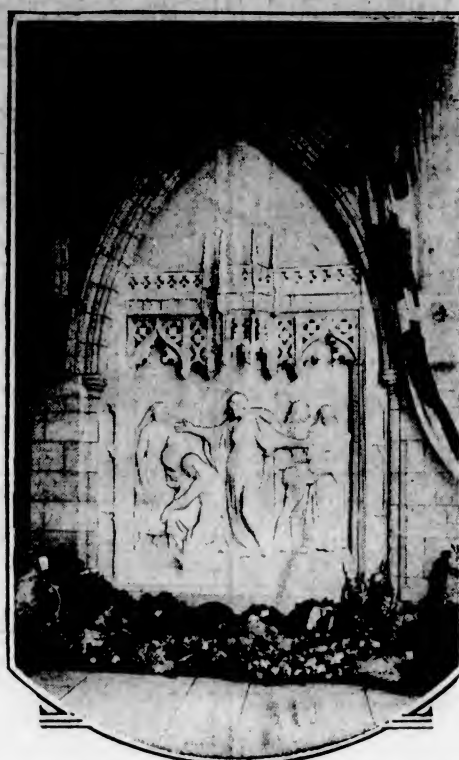

Fashions and Foibles

By Shirley Sharon

The latest version of the Summer ensemble is a coat frock of georgette, crepe Roma or silk voile worn over a separate and slightly more opaque slip of satin or radium. The latter is especially smart over a slip of polka dot print in a slightly lighter blue. Out-of-town with short sleeves the dress is charming in the Summer print, crepe de Chine, silk crepe or silk voile.

Canadian Nurses' Heroism Commemorated

At a brilliant function on Parliament Hill, Ottawa, last week, a monument to the heroic Canadian nursing sisters was presented to the people of Canada by Miss Jane Brown, of Toronto, on behalf of the Canadian Nurses' Association, of which she is president. The monument was unveiled and accepted by Sir Henry Drayton on behalf of the people. The photograph above shows a close-up of the beautiful memorial.

Autumn Styles From Paris

Tweeds Made on Plain Smart Lines Are Worn This Year—Black for Afternoon

PARIS, Aug. 31.—Early indications of new fashions can now be confirmed and corrected. Materials are figured and plain, put together, or separate. Skirts, though always short, are usually fuller in front than at the back, and width or the appearance of it is given to them by inset panels, slim draperies, deep pleats, and flat flounces.

Suede waistcoats. Short tweed coats with skirts have bright jumpers and sleeveless suede waistcoats. Long, straight coats with a sleek look well when the material is transparent, or very thin. Pockets are put on and into coats. Fur collars are large and full; and there are scarf collars. Some dresses fasten close to the throat. Flowers are worn on evening dresses. The fashion of one color for dress, coat and hat is established.

Tailor-Made Severe. Tailor-made cloth and tweeds are as severe as possible. Dim cheeks, broken stripes, plaids, and light mixed tints are used to make them. The Norfolk coat, simplified, is a model for many; and the covert coat is also fashionable. Strictly tailored coats and skirts may not be trimmed with fur, the collars are cut and pressed but the shoulder pads may be worn with them, and high-necked jumpers or chemisettes. Long, warmly-lined tweed coats are for traveling, and may match the coat and skirt. Leather coats, in soft colors, are trimmed and lined with fur. Black shiny leather belts are worn on colored dresses.

Newest Velvets. The deep rich Patou purples and reds, in cloth, velvet, chiffon, or crepe de Chine, make most distinguished dresses and coats. Under a red velvet coat trimmed with fur may be a red chiffon dress with plain draperies left with the selvage edging. A deep purple coat trimmed with black fur goes with a chiffon and velvet dress. A purple satin coat, trimmed with black fox, has a plain purple satin frock under it. Many velvet coats are made with satin linings.

Everywhere Black Dresses. Black dresses, for afternoon and evening, are universal. Black chiffon trimmed with falling strands of varnished feathers round the skirt makes one dress. Black georgette is used for another with long silk fringe to trim it. A black moire dress is untrimmed except for a wide shiny leather belt.

Those who intend to donate cakes, etc., for the home cooking stall at the War Memorial fête, which will be in charge of the Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.E., are asked to leave them at Scott's Grocery, Head Street, and at Heil's Grocery, Esquimalt Road, on Saturday before 11 o'clock.

Major McManus Dead. KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 31.—Major William James McManus, a well-known retired military officer, formerly of Vancouver, is dead at his home here. He held many important posts in the Canadian militia, retiring in 1919 from the service.

A black velvet dress with a gold lame jumper is worn under a coat-cape trimmed with black fox. Mastic-grey, baby-lamb grey, are two shades of a fashionable color. Shaded grey astrakhan trim coats. Kaaba, cloth, velvet and satin in different shades of grey make town clothes, and grey tweeds are for country clothes. Sometimes coats are so lined as to be reversible. Grey furs are most fashionable—astrakhan, grey fox, grey goat skin, grey squirrel, mole skin, grey seal and grey rabbit.

Weddings

At "Broadbent" Port Street, on Saturday evening, Rev. Dr. Campbell solemnized the marriage of Miss Mabel Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cox, of 147 Joseph Street, to Mr. A. J. Worth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worth, of 212 Caledonia Avenue. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was prettily gowned in pale blue crepe de Chine with white picture hat. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and roses and was attended by Miss Violet Rose in fawn crepe de Chine with hat to match. Mr. W. Miller was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home. Among the many gifts received by the young couple, was a handsome mahogany table from the grocerists staff of David Spencer, Limited, Mr. and Mrs. Worth will make their home in Victoria.

Home Cooking Stall. Those who intend to donate cakes, etc., for the home cooking stall at the War Memorial fête, which will be in charge of the Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.E., are asked to leave them at Scott's Grocery, Head Street, and at Heil's Grocery, Esquimalt Road, on Saturday before 11 o'clock.

MR. COOLIDGE DOES NOT LIKE PROPOSAL

PRESIDENT DOES NOT FALL IN WITH VIEWS OF MR. BAKER ON CANCELLATION

Dispatch Says He Believes That If the Government Gives Money It Should Go to Americans

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Special dispatch from Paul Smith's N.Y., indicates that President Coolidge will insist that foreign nations pay their enormous war debts to the United States, despite the demand for cancellation made by Mr. Newton D. Baker, war-time Secretary of War.

The Herald-Tribune correspondent says advisers of the President are reported to have declared that Mr. Baker "will not be able to rally twenty members of the House to his proposal," and that friends of the President believe Mr. Baker's outburst "signalled the first of a Democratic campaign for debt cancellation."

"The President believes," the dispatch continues, "that if the government has any money to give away, it should be given to Americans—not to foreigners."

ACCOUNTANTS WILL HOLD CONVENTION

Annual Meeting of Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants Will Take Place in Montreal

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—Chartered accountants from the nine provinces of Canada will converge in Montreal at the end of September for the annual convention of the Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants, which will open on September 29 and close on October 1. It is estimated that there will be nearly 300 members of the association present and many will be accompanied by their wives, according to the applications for reservations already sent to the secretary.

The convention will open at 10 a.m. on September 29, when the Premier of Quebec, Hon. L. A. Taschereau, and Mayor Martin, of Montreal, will extend an official welcome in the name of the Province of Quebec and the city of Montreal, after which Mr. Eugene Trudel, C.A., of Quebec City, president of the Association, will deliver his annual address. There will be a business session in the afternoon and the annual banquet and entertainment will be held in the evening.

Committees will present their reports at the morning session on Sept. 30 and at the morning meeting on Oct. 1 there will be an address on a technical subject, in addition to which the reports of the council, secretary-treasurer and the constitution committees will be read before the convention terminates at midday. The president will be host at a luncheon to the council on Oct. 1.

Arrangements have been made for the entertainment of the ladies, while the members will have the option of playing in a golf challenge match, making a trip around the harbor or to the Laurentian Mountains on the afternoon of Sept. 30.

French Net Stars Will Test American Strength

Wimbledon Tennis Winners to Be Pitted Against Norris Williams and Vincent Richards in Match for U.S. National Doubles Championship

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 31.—The stage was set today on the turf courts of the Longwood Cricket Club for two international doubles battles tomorrow, in which American and French will clash in a preliminary test of Davis Cup strength.

Pitted against R. Norris Williams and Vincent Richards, defending champions, in the upper half of the drive for the national team championship, will be the Wimbledon winners, Jacques Brugnon and Henry Cochet.

In the lower half, the two singles aces of the invading contingent, Rene Lacoste and Jean Borotra, will face the veteran star, William M. Johnston, and his fellow Californian, Edward G. Chandler, the intercollegiate title-holder.

Victory for either of the two French batteries virtually would assure the tricolor representation in the final round.

Cochet and Brugnon, by daring and spectacular rushes to the net, were able to win a four-set victory, 1-6, 6-2, 6-3, 7-5. Borotra and Lacoste were extended only in the third and final contest with John Barr and William Allister, of Texas. The French aces won at 6-2, 6-1, 7-5.

At Lord's, against Middlesex, in a scheduled county cricket match which ended today, Jack Hobbs, England's premier batsman, broke another record of the famous cricket ground when he scored 314 runs in the inning for Surrey.

The previous record at Lord's was 215, made by Percy Holmes, of Yorkshire, last year.

Hobbs' latest accomplishment is also the highest score he has yet made in his whole career.

He batted seven hours and hit forty-one fours.

All Principal Contenders Running True to Form

Mrs. Vera Hutchings Only Westerner Left in Canadian Open Golf Championship—Leaders All Survive First Round With Impressive Ease

WINNIPEG, Aug. 31.—With all the outstanding players running true to form, the first round of the championship play for the Canadian Ladies Open Golf Championship was concluded here early tonight, after being delayed at the start by rain. Mrs. A. Mackenzie, defending her title, won her match with Mrs. Ridout, Lambton Club, Toronto, in the easiest fashion, the game concluding at the eleventh green, Mrs. Mackenzie winning 8 and 7.

All those who led in the qualifying round yesterday survived today's play with impressive ease.

Mrs. Helen Paget, Ottawa, who tied with Mrs. Mackenzie for the leadership in the qualifying round, won today from Mrs. Court May, Edmonton, 6 and 4. Other stars to win were Mrs. Vera Hutchings, Vancouver, and Mrs. Douglas Laird, Winnipeg.

Only Westerner

With the exception of Mrs. Hutchings, all players from west of Winnipeg were eliminated from the championship play. Miss Margaret Walsh, Toronto, eliminated Mrs. George Beart, Edmonton, 4 and 3, while Mrs. Douglas Laird won from Mrs. J. T. Gray, Calgary, 5 and 4.

Eight players from Eastern Canada remained in the running for the title out of fifteen who began the first round this morning. Seven local players will start the second round tomorrow.

The First Flight

Games in the new flight were even more closely fought than those in the championship flight. The West dominated the play, there being but four contestants from east of Winnipeg. Two of these were eliminated in today's round.

Three Regina players will go into the second round of the first flight tomorrow. Regina in which Westerners took part follow:

Mike McTigue Knocks Out Panama Batter in Eleventh Round in New York Ring

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Mike McTigue, of New York, knocked out King Solomon, of Panama, in the eleventh round of a scheduled twelve-round match at the Queensborough Stadium tonight.

The eleventh round had gone one minute and twenty-seven seconds when McTigue landed a terrific right to the jaw. Solomon fell and was counted out after a feeble effort to rise.

Knute Hansen, Racine, Wis., heavyweight, knocked out Quinn Romero, of Chile, in the third round of a ten-round semi-final.

Romero was counted out after two minutes and fifteen seconds of fighting in the round. A left hook to the stomach had finally done the trick. Hansen weighed 266 pounds and Romero 193 pounds.

CURLEW PARTY GETS GREAT RECEPTION

SAILOR ARTISTS RECEIVE TREMENDOUS APPLAUSE AT CONCERT LAST EVENING

Will Repeat Performance Next Tuesday in Aid of the Sailors' Home Fund

The Memorial Hall was filled to overflowing last evening, several hundred persons being turned away, when the brass band, glee party, concert party and Tintown Hummers of H.M.S. Curlew gave one of the most enjoyable entertainments ever staged in Victoria. Under the patronage of the Lieutenant-Governor, the concert was given in aid of the Navy League of Canada.

Lieutenant J. W. Grant, R.N., acted as general manager, with Lieutenant B. Webb, R.N., as assistant manager; M. A. A. Cronley, as stage manager; P. O. Mahon, bandmaster, and U. A. Wheeler, as accompanist.

The programme opened with an overture by the Curlew's brass band, followed by "Canada," two songs by the glee party and some fun and merriment by "The Yen Loonies," whose grotesque antics left the audience quite weak with laughter. During a short interval which followed, His Honor and a party from Government House arrived, the band striking up the National Anthem as the guests entered the hall.

"Music, Mirth and Melody"

Part two contained a series of songs which were breezy and amusing. A. B. Tribe in "Wimmin, Oh! Wimmin," A. B. Proctor in "What No Women?" showing themselves to be clever comedians. "Mama, Spoon-Bro," with A. B. Trickett and J. Hendley were quite novel as conjurers, and "Valecia," sung by Rpt. Roach, who possesses an unusually fine voice, was accompanied by a male beauty chorus of surprising ability. Ida, sea singer, then gave a spirited exhibition of the sailors' hornpipe, proving himself to be an accomplished dancer.

Marine Hodgson, who also sang extremely well, delighted the audience with his "Hydras the Cretan" while A. B. Proctor and Rpt. Gardner, in "Horace and Maurice," were received with great applause.

Other items in part two were: "The Catastrophe," "Take a Pair of Sparkling Eyes," sung by E. R. A. Kimber, an original sea song, "The Tiddly Hi-Ti Island," with a topical refrain in which the audience joined, and "Horsea," sung by a chorus of gallant horsemen.

Rpt. Roach was enthusiastically applauded as "Memorizer," which he sang as a solo, one of the most popular numbers of the programme.

Clever Sketch

As a climax to a most refreshing entertainment, "The Play's the Thing," a screaming farce from beginning to end, brought down the house. The following took part: The manager, M. A. A. Cronley; Dickson (the butler), M. M. E. Hodgson; Henriette de Millefleur (the vamp), A. B. Proctor; Mrs. Spencer-Reeve, Rpt. Leut. Smith, R.N.; Ann (her step-daughter), Rpt. Webb, R.N.; Adrian, Rpt. Gardner; Claude Pincley (a top), Rpt. Grant, R.N.; Mr. Spencer-Reeve, A. B. Tribe. With no scenery, some amusing scenes followed, in which the ever-discreet Dickson proved himself "discretion itself."

The splendid entertainment, characterized by a rollicking spontaneity was brought to a close by the grand finale, "All of Us," sung by the entire company. Those who were unable to get in last evening will be pleased to hear that the party will give the same programme on September 7 in the Memorial Hall, and it is advisable to procure tickets in advance to avoid disappointment.

The general manager, those in charge, and the concert party, itself, are to be congratulated on their first claim entertainment, which proved a gloom-dispeller and mirth-maker of the highest type.

ABORIGINAL TRIBES AT MEXICAN SCHOOL

National Academies for Indians Are Established to Assist in More Unified Civilization

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 31.—Dinner hour at the Mexican Government's National School for Indians gives one the idea of what the school in the Tower of Babel must have been like. Twenty-six languages, all of them unknown to the average person, go on at once.

For the purpose of teaching the Spanish language to the Indians, as well as a mode of life which it is hoped will eventually result in a more unified civilization, schools have been established in various parts of Mexico. The Government has endeavored to obtain teachers, men with a sympathetic understanding of the civilization which was originally behind their pupils. In the City of Mexico, where the Government has centralized its efforts, twenty-six aboriginal races are represented in the school, ranging from the Mayas of Yucatan, who once enjoyed the most perfect civilization in Mexico, to the uncouth Tarahumara Indians of Chihuahua.

These Tarahumara are in one way the most interesting Indians in the school. Highly primitive, they have retained all of their customs, untouched by the influence of the white man. Formerly they were famous for their blankets, woven from the brown and white wool of their sheep, but in recent years on account of the droughts in their country the sheep have died, and the Tarahumara appear only in their old blankets, worn thin from many winters. Their hair is matted and they are always very dirty.

As one would expect from a remnant of the primitive customs of these Tarahumara, their condition is deplorable. A large percentage of them are imbecile or epileptic, which they explain by saying that these unfortunate have been "bled by the moon." Doctors who have worked among them say it is a result of the native drugs and drinks in which they so freely indulge.

MR. N. R. DESBRISAY

Appointed General Passenger Agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, Vancouver, succeeding Mr. W. H. Shell, retired.

Mr. Desbrisay entered the service as stenographer in Saint John, N.B., in 1904, and has served in the Passenger Department at Halifax, Quebec, England, New York and as District Passenger Agent at Saint John, whence he was promoted to Winnipeg in 1922, as Assistant General Passenger Agent.

The programme opened with an overture by the Curlew's brass band, followed by "Canada," two songs by the glee party and some fun and merriment by "The Yen Loonies," whose grotesque antics left the audience quite weak with laughter. During a short interval which followed, His Honor and a party from Government House arrived, the band striking up the National Anthem as the guests entered the hall.

"Music, Mirth and Melody"

Part two contained a series of songs which were breezy and amusing. A. B. Tribe in "Wimmin, Oh! Wimmin," A. B. Proctor in "What No Women?" showing themselves to be clever comedians. "Mama, Spoon-Bro," with A. B. Trickett and J. Hendley were quite novel as conjurers, and "Valecia," sung by Rpt. Roach, who possesses an unusually fine voice, was accompanied by a male beauty chorus of surprising ability. Ida, sea singer, then gave a spirited exhibition of the sailors' hornpipe, proving himself to be an accomplished dancer.

Marine Hodgson, who also sang extremely well, delighted the audience with his "Hydras the Cretan" while A. B. Proctor and Rpt. Gardner, in "Horace and Maurice," were received with great applause.

Other items in part two were: "The Catastrophe," "Take a Pair of Sparkling Eyes," sung by E. R. A. Kimber, an original sea song, "The Tiddly Hi-Ti Island," with a topical refrain in which the audience joined, and "Horsea," sung by a chorus of gallant horsemen.

Rpt. Roach was enthusiastically applauded as "Memorizer," which he sang as a solo, one of the most popular numbers of the programme.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND IN DIAMOND RUSH

NEW FIND REPORTED IN TRANSVAAL—EMPHATIC SPEECHES TO STAKE CLAIMS

Population of District Rises From Few Hundred to Fifty Thousand Almost Over Night

JOHANNESBURG, Aug. 31.—South Africa's latest diamond rush brought 15,000 persons, including 120 women, to a farm in the Transvaal Colony. Prospectors in the field have already found diamonds worth $180,000. Among the sprinters were several runners with good track records. One syndicate employed thirty antelope athletes as runners. They arrived in full running kit.

More than 25,000 claims were pegged out, and the population of the district was increased from a few hundred to about 50,000 almost overnight.

JAPANESE ROYALTY SELLS SECURITIES

Desire to Avoid Being in Position of Employer When Labor Disputes Arise

TOKIO, Aug. 31.—The Imperial family of Japan, one of the richest in the world, has announced that it will dispose of securities it holds in various private enterprises of the country. One reason for this is that the Imperial family wishes to avoid interfering in any way in alterations of capital and stock, it being impossible to call a strike against any company in which the Imperial household is interested.

The stocks and bonds, worth many millions of yen, were acquired by the late Emperor Meiji to aid "Infant Industries."

The industries having become large corporations, the Imperial family will sell its interests in them to private individuals and purchase Government bonds with the proceeds.

Medieval Swedish Castles Were Heated By Modern Methods

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 31.—The inhabitants of old Swedish castles enjoyed modern comforts more than four centuries ago.

The castle of Glimmingehus, one of Sweden's most famous country seats, built in 1493, contained a central heating plant in the basement with conduits through the walls, discovered by representatives of the Royal Swedish Academy of Antiquities.

This is believed to be the oldest installation of its kind in Northern Europe. Breakfast in bed also apparently was enjoyed by the master and mistress of the castle as speaking tubes were found leading from their bedrooms to the kitchen.

Prince Albert Dispute Satisfactorily Over

OTTAWA, Aug. 31.—The dispute over the rearrangement of polling subdivisions in Prince Albert, Sask., constituency, has been settled. Mr. F. W. Wright, agent for Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, who is a candidate in that riding, has wired the chief electoral officer that satisfactory arrangements have been made by the returning officer, Major P. W. Penner, and the complaints have been withdrawn.

Nicaragua Warfare Goes on Indecisively

MANGUA, Aug. 31.—The revolutionists captured Casa Gracia, on the east coast, today. The United States cruiser Rochester has arrived at Brazman's Bluff, where it was sent to protect foreign interests. The Government reports that the revolutionists were defeated in a skirmish near the Gulf of Fonseca and driven into the mountains.

Canada Is Largest Supplier With Paper

Although New Zealand at the present time has two papermaking factories, there is still a large importation of various kinds of paper, writes Trade Commissioner C. M. Craft, Auckland, in the forthcoming issue of The Commercial Intelligence Journal. Newsprint is probably the most important class imported.

Canada is the largest supplier of this with 238,232 cwt. to her credit in 1925, followed by Great Britain with 136,182 cwt. in 1925. Canada is also the second largest shipper, in 1925, followed by Great Britain with 1,766 cwt. in 1924 to 3,561 cwt. in 1925. Canada is also of the 1925 total of 298,323 packs, as New Zealand's second largest supplier, against Britain's 182,820 packs.

Kaikyu Maru's Damage Is Reported Extensive

Japanese Freighter Which Struck Ripple Reef Submerged to Decks and Exposed to Strong Tides—Salvage Queen Reached Scene Yesterday

Extensive damage was sustained by the Japanese freighter Kaikyū Maru when she struck on Ripple Reef early Sunday morning, according to advices received over the long distance telephone from Vancouver yesterday afternoon from Mr. A. C. Hurdick, manager of the Pacific Coast Salvage Company, which has two salvage vessels at the scene of the wreck.

Mr. Hurdick stated that the extent of the damage was not yet known, as the survey of the vessel was incomplete, but that she was submerged in her decks and exposed to strong tides. Work in unloading the twelve-foot deckload of Japanese squares had started, according to a wireless report received from Captain Hew-son, of the Salvage King, one of the vessels which is assisting in salvaging the freighter.

Salvage Queen Arrives
The Salvage Queen which left here Monday afternoon with additional equipment and men arrived at the scene of the wreck yesterday afternoon and will give any aid required by the Salvage King.

Mr. Harry A. Barnett, British Corporation Surveyor, is at the wreck with Captain W. H. Logan, of Lloyd's, surveying the vessel. Mr. Barnett examined the ship at Port Alberni before she sailed on her ill-fated voyage.

Advices received by King Brothers, local agents of the Canadian-American Shipping Company, in whose service the wrecked vessel was plying, state that the Italian freighter Hermann has been chartered to take the place of the Kaikyū Maru.

Weather reports received here will likewise indicate the presence of fog on the coast. Although no definite announcement has been made as to the cause of the wreck, local shipping men attach the responsibility to this source.

UNITED STATES DRAWN
UPON FOR HARVESTERS

Additional Trains Will Be Run From Eastern Provinces Also—Shortage of Men Serious

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—Failure of the East to supply its usual contingent of men for the harvesting of the grain crop of the central provinces this year has necessitated the taking of steps to meet the shortage that is causing much anxiety in the West. Word received here today conveys the information that commencing September 1, and continuing to September 15, inclusive, all points along the border between the Prairie Provinces and the United States will be thrown open to harvesters, and that a charge of one cent per mile on the railways will be made between these dates to point in the wheat provinces, while the fare back to the border will be at the rate of two cents a mile.

More From East
In the meantime further efforts are being made to induce harvesters from Eastern Canada to go West. On August 31 an excursion will be run from Eastern Ontario, and additional excursions will be run from the Maritime Provinces on September 3, and from Quebec and Ontario on September 4. It is hoped that these trains will have heavy passenger lists. The shortage of 20,000 harvesters to garner the crop is causing much anxiety in the Prairie Provinces, but it is felt that the above emergency measures will go far towards meeting the need of men. Better times, increased employment and later harvesting in the East are given as the cause of the falling off in the numbers of men going west this year. There is work in the West for all who take the trip, and when work is completed on one farm it can always be found on another not far removed from the first. Thus in Manitoba harvesters are already moving on to Saskatchewan, while Alberta has just started harvesting.

No More From B.C.
VANCOUVER, Aug. 31.—With expiration of the reduced rates in the prairie tonight, British Columbia will have sent more than 7,000 harvesters to the grain fields of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Mr. J. H. McVety, superintendent of the Employment Service of Canada, said today: "On Monday 400 men went east, and a large number is expected to leave tonight. The final party will be dispatched on Wednesday, men having purchased tickets today being allowed twenty-four hours in which to use them. Mr. McVety stated no extension of the reduced rates period will be granted this year, though there is still an urgent demand from the prairie for more harvesters."

"WHITE CARGO" SAID TO BE LIBELLOUS

LONDON, August 31.—Beautiful half-caste girls do not run around in a very few clothes, charming young Englishmen down on the Gold Coast.

Princess Marie Louise, cousin of King George, says the play "White Cargo" is a "cruel libel, utterly false and untrue." The Princess recently visited the Gold Coast and letters about the play which she wrote in her sister, Princess Helena Victoria, have just been published.

When Mary Clare played the role of Tondelwyn in the first London production of "White Cargo" the censorship forced her to extend her costume very materially, but even in the more sedate apparel she won great favor and the play ran for nearly two years.

The Stage
Coliseum—"7 Keys to Baldpate."

DOMINION "La Boheme." Lillian Gish's first American-made picture in some years is the attraction at the Dominion Theatre. The much-heralded play, in which Miss Gish is seen in the tragic role of Mimi, famous wherever opera is loved, is one of the outstanding productions of the year, and Miss Gish's interpretation of the role has created a furor in studio circles. King Vidor, who directed "The Blue Paradise," directed the new picture, which was staged on a lavish scale. John Gilbert plays the leading male role as Rodolphe, the poet, with Renee Adrewe as the sprightly Musetta. Others in the cast are Roy D'Arcy, Edward Everett Horton and others of note.

COLUMBIA Contrast, said to be the most vital factor in dramatic art, is sharply defined by Victor Gollancz in "Siberia." Fox Films version of Partey Campbell's realistic play of darkest Russia, at the Columbia Theatre today. In this epic featuring Alma Rubens and Edmond Lowe, Miss Rubens wears the very simplest frocks, while the gay women of the court wear the most elaborate and most dazzling gowns obtainable. During much of the action she is seen in the depressing garb of Russian prisoners.

PLAYHOUSE If the husband of a motion picture fan suddenly told her he was bankrupt and the moving men came and took all the furniture away while the lady had a house full of guests? Anna Q. Nilsson reacts under exactly these circumstances in "Too Much Money," the first National attraction showing this week at the Playhouse Theatre, with Miss Nilsson and Lewis Stone in the featured roles. Needless to say, she saves the day.

CAPITOL Meet "The Duchess of Buffalo" at the Capitol Theatre. Constance Talmadge, an American girl masquerading as a grand duchess in Russia, appears on the screen in her latest comedy drama. The picture, easily the star's greatest, is playing a six days engagement. Miss Talmadge is at her best in this lavishly produced picture, directed by Sidney A. Franklin. She again demonstrates her flair for scintillating comedy and fast-action romance. No star wears fine clothes better than Constance, and her wardrobe in this picture is a revelation.

COLISEUM "Seven Keys to Baldpate." Mr. Cohan succeeds at the Coliseum this week, bids fair to exceed in popularity any play yet presented by that talented director, Mr. Redmond. Weird and mystical and amid increasingly tense situations, the play surges along to an unusual and hilariously funny climax. The Coliseum company are to be congratulated on a perfect reproduction of this wonderful farce.

DELEGATES PRESENT
REPORT OF PARLEY

Messrs. A. King and W. B. Revercomb
Tell Local Kiwanis Club of District Convention

Acclaiming the annual convention of the Pacific Northwest Kiwanis District, held last week at Eugene, Oregon, as the most successful gathering of Kiwanians in the annals of the district, Vice-President Alvin D. King and Director Walter B. Revercomb, of the Victoria Kiwanis Club, delegates of the local organization to the convention, presented their report to the club at the weekly luncheon session yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce.

The report, which was read by Vice-President King, was received with marked enthusiasm by the meeting, which termed it the best convention review ever submitted to the club, and congratulated the delegates upon their very efficient work.

Kiwanis District Progress
Mr. King told the club that Governor Kenneth Ferguson presented to the convention an interesting report, detailing the activities of Kiwanians in the district. A general improvement affecting the Pacific Northwest Kiwanis District was shown, eight clubs having been added since January 1, 1925.

The following recommendations were made to the convention by Governor Ferguson:

1. To promote an intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship, by (a) emphasizing the need for adequate instruction in all schools as to fundamental principles of government; (b) vigorously combating destructive influences in national life; (c) extending our effort to secure a universal exercise of the franchise in all elections; (d) creating a better individual understanding of government problems to the end that Kiwanians may better assist in the development of a sound and sane public opinion.

Under-Privileged Children

2. To enlarge our programme for under-privileged children that still more enduring service may be rendered by (a) extending our efforts beyond institutions, to reach those who need direction and assistance morally and financially; (b) developing personal and individual interest rather than mere check service.

3. To promote the acceptance of the ideals of Kiwanis as the guiding principles in business and professional life.

4. To continue our effort to secure a better understanding between the farmer and the city man.

5. To crystallize the thought of Kiwanians on matters of national and international import through the presentation of the facts on selected subjects by competent authorities through the pages of the Kiwanis Magazine and to promote the discussion of subjects by competent speakers in the clubs and at the convention.

6. To enlist the interests of all Kiwanis Clubs in providing vocational guidance and placement for young men and women through Kiwanis members offering advice in their respective classifications.

Review of Convention Work

The delegates' report also gave a comprehensive review of a number of the leading addresses delivered at the convention, and also of discussions regarding various aspects of the work.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR TO OPEN LUXTON FAIR

District Exhibition Will Be Record
One Today—Large Number of Entries Made

Today Luxton will hold its fair, which is expected to be one of the best on Vancouver Island this year. It will be formally opened by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor. The exhibition will last only for a day but, with the various districts within reach all co-operating to make it a success, there is every assurance that it will be one of the best fairs held on the island apart from the Provincial Fair in Victoria.

Mr. C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, managing director of the show, has devoted a lot of time to the arrangements and is assured of success. In addition to the large building for show purposes at Luxton, which will be utilized for the inside exhibits, four large tents have been erected. These will afford ample room for the display of exhibits.

The entries number over 1,200.

The Romance of British Columbia
1774-1926

Recommencing
in a Few Days

Be Ready to Start Clipping Again

VACATION TIME is almost over and now we can settle down again to our duties in home, office or school with pleasant memories of delightful summer days.

Perhaps during the summer you have visited some of the places mentioned in the early numbers of the "Romance of British Columbia" and found how much more interesting the familiar places in your province become when you know the romantic story which lies behind them. If you have found or heard anything which you think will interest others who are following this series, please let us know of it.

Before the Summer Holidays, we followed the story from 1774 when Don Juan Perez reached the Queen Charlotte Islands—read of Captain Cook's visit to this coast—followed the early disputes with Spaniards and natives up to the time when Captain George Vancouver finally claimed this province for Great Britain. Then we journeyed with MacKenzie and his intrepid overland party—followed Simon Fraser on his hazardous journey down the great river to the sea, and watched the development of this province until we came to that grand old figure, Sir James Douglas—the first Governor of British Columbia.

Now we continue the story, and No. 35 will picture the famous S.S. Beaver—first steamship on the Pacific Coast and pioneer of our immense sea-port business.

Then, as we proceed, intensely interesting incidents within the memory of some old pioneers still living, will be described and illustrated until we see Vancouver today and then look into the wonderful future with all it holds for this fair Province. Keep in touch with the series—you will find them increasingly interesting right to the very end.

To our younger readers now returning to school, we wish every success in the new term's work. Resolve to work harder, to make yourself a good citizen of this wonderful province. Good health is essential, so eat plenty of good wholesome food including the delicious 4X Products you like so well.

Shelly's

VANCOUVER · NEW WESTMINSTER · VICTORIA · NANAIMO

PERHAPS the most enjoyable loaf put out by bakeries today is that which is sold under the good old name of "Home-made." There is such a vast difference in the ingredients and the baking, and so some bakeries make a much better loaf than others. Shelly's Home-made Loaf is an all-white-flour loaf, having particular appeal to the general taste of old and young in the same family. Many home-keepers prefer it for the reason that its general acceptance by all makes it economical for daily use. Shelly's

Home-made Loaf besides "has a delicate" flavor all its own which comes from being baked on the sole of the oven, without a pan. This loaf is particularly liked by the boys and girls who anxiously await their turn for the "crusts." The ingredients make it much desired by those whose diet permits white bread in its highest form. As with other Shelly loaves it may be seen in the making at the big model bakery—10th Avenue at Ash—every Friday afternoon, when a special trip is made through the plant with a guide who explains the entire process.

DEPARTMENT SEEKS INFORMATION ON
ORIENTAL SUBJECT

Some months ago the Provincial Department of Agriculture sent out a questionnaire to various public and semi-public bodies in the Province in the hope of getting exact information on the Oriental question as it affects agriculture. It was sought to ascertain how many had acquired land in the different municipalities of the Province either by purchase or by lease.

The records of the municipal offices fail to give information as to leases, but it is said that there has been a vast amount of information obtained relative to the ownership of farm lands by Orientals.

The impression prevails that Japanese are devoting more and more attention to farming and less to fishing and to other industrial pursuits. On the other hand it is suggested that the Chinese are devoting more and more attention to these industries rather than to farming.

The information gathered by the department will be placed before the Legislature when it meets.

NEW MANAGEMENT OF NANAIMO POLICE

Provincial Police Will Take Over Administration, Absorbing City Police, Effective Today

NANAIMO, Aug. 31.—Commencing tomorrow, September 1, the policing of Nanaimo will be under the Provincial authorities, and the present city police department will cease to exist. Last evening the City Council, at their regular meeting, were in receipt from Col. J. H. McMullen, superintendent of the Provincial Police, of the signed agreement entered into between the city and the Provincial authorities whereby the Province undertakes the policing of Nanaimo tomorrow.

In connection with the above the following letter was received by the board from Chief of City Police J. Shirras:

"Gentlemen,—I respectfully beg to advise you that Inspector Parsons, of the B.C. Police, visited the City Police Department today and made final arrangements for taking charge of policing the city on September 1.

"He interviewed all the men of the department and assured them that they would be absorbed and given every consideration, and that they would remain in the city for some time.

"This means that the present City Police Department ceases and will be wholly absorbed by the B.C. Police on September 1.

"I wish at this time to express on behalf of the City Police Department, deep appreciation to your honorable board for the courtesies and consideration given the department."

MILL ESCAPES WHEN YARD IS DAMAGED

Fire at Cowichan Mill, Cowichan Lake, Consumes Considerable Quantity of Lumber

The Cowichan mill of the Empire Lumber Company, on the north side of Cowichan Lake, at the terminus of the Canadian National Railway at Youbou, was fortunately spared a serious loss when fire broke out there on Monday night.

Fire believed to have originated by sparks from the burner ignited the lumber in the yard, and about $25,000 worth of damage was done before the staff could extinguish the blaze. Supplied with adequate water, the outbreak was checked quickly. Fortunately the wind was in a favorable position and prevented the flames from spreading, though they ate through the floor planking of the yard. It is estimated that nearly two million feet of lumber, three box cars and two flat cars loaded with lumber were destroyed.

The fire fighting corps saved eight cars also waiting to be loaded.

On his return from an inspection of the damage, Mr. G. D. Bouton, managing director, informed The Colonial last evening that the loss was well covered by insurance. While the spur track was put out of commission, the mill staff could use the main line, and the mill machinery being intact, the plant would be producing again by Thursday.

Two Nations to Fight Communicable Diseases

ST. PAUL, Aug. 31.—American and Canadian health authorities will conduct a concerted drive against communicable diseases during the six months period beginning with September, reports Dr. A. J. Chesley, secretary-treasurer of the Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities of North America.

Diphtheria will be dealt with during September and October, smallpox during November and December, and typhoid fever during January and February.

"A survey will be made of each locality," said Dr. Chesley, "and an extensive educational campaign will be promoted to make certain that every person understands that these diseases are communicable and that they are preventable."

State and Provincial health officers, all of whom are members of the conference, automatically become members of the campaign committee to foster the movement.

Co-operation of the American Medical Association, the Canadian Health Department of the Dominion of Canada, and the United States Public Health Service has been promised.

CANADIAN TRAIN TO TOUR BRITAIN URGED

Success of Propaganda in France
Could Be Multiplied by Journey
Through British Isles

Senator C. P. Beaubien, eminent French-Canadian lawyer and financier, who piloted Canada's exhibition train through France with great eclat, is pressing forward his scheme to send a similar train through the British Isles. This train, to consist of thirty tractors and trailers, fitted up an exhibition booths, would make the grand circle of the Old Country, carrying the message of Canadian wares and Canadian opportunities to buyers, home-seekers and tourists.

The senator thinks a British train would be even more successful than the French train. In the first place, immigration propaganda could be carried. The French Government barred this in that country. Again, there would be representatives of both great Canadian races on the train, while in France the personnel was necessarily chiefly French-speaking. Arm agents, the senator would be to a nation that knows Canada, that has trade arrangements perfected and that is the chief source of Canadian immigration.

Propaganda Needed in Britain.
Speaking to The Financial Post, the senator outlined his plan:

"Everybody seems to admit that we require a strong campaign of propaganda in Great Britain. No doubt, it would stimulate our export trade, our immigration policy and answer the campaign of slander and defamation carried on against the Dominion. This threefold purpose, I suggest, can be accomplished effectively and with a minimum of time and expense by sending an exhibition train through the British Isles. My conviction in this respect is founded upon the performance of the Canadian Exhibition Train of 1923.

"It is well to remember that this new form of propaganda, within twelve months, doubled our trade with France and Belgium; it did so notwithstanding prohibitory tariffs and depreciated currencies.

Had France on Its Toes.
"For five months, we had the whole of France and Belgium speaking and reading of Canada. In every city, where the train passed, unprecedented crowds gathered, often more than 50,000 being present at the same time. In these days, to mobilize the crowd is to command every person in the city."

"We gathered on the way 2,500 columns of free newspaper advertisement, the best that could be had since it was 'news' advertisement. No less than 800 of these newspaper columns were published in the great dailies of Paris. At the rate at which advertising space is sold in the city of Montreal, these 2,500 columns would have cost exactly three times the amount spent by Canada for the Canadian Exhibition Train. And still, looking back at our organization I must admit that it was far from perfect.

"With the experience that we have gathered, I feel convinced that we could do much better in Great Britain.

"If skillfully prepared, the circuit of an imposing train, such as that of 1923, would find the entire population of England, Scotland and Ireland on tip-toe gazing at Canada as it would, in a steady and impressive pageant, progress through the country. This suggestion of sending a Canadian Exhibition Train to Great Britain has been received here with favor, and I might say, in many cases, with enthusiasm.

Would Cost $200,000.
"The cost of carrying out this project would be relatively small, $200,000.

"The train and its equipment would cost about $120,000 (thirty tractors and trailers at $4,000). Five hundred dollars a day would cover all expenses during the progress of the train—ninety days at $500, or $45,000). This was our total cost in Belgium, where our personnel was much greater than necessary. For collecting, forwarding, insuring exhibits, etc., an approximate amount of $35,000 is added.

"This expenditure should be borne, in my opinion, in the same manner as the cost of the train in France, i.e., one-half by the Federal Government, and one-quarter by each of our two big railway systems.

"The capital invested in the equipment could, subsequently, be used to do similar service in different countries. It could immediately tour the Middle Western States of the Republic to the south, to recruit farmers for our wheat lands. The Canadian Pacific Railway has, with success, used similar methods in that region, but on a very modest scale.

"Then, it might be employed with excellent results in the eastern part of the United States to stimulate the inflow of tourists to Canada. In fact, it could, in time, be sent to Australia, New Zealand, South America, etc. The train would be so built as to be easily 'knocked down' for transportation."

DEFENCE POLICY OF AUSTRALIA EXPLAINED

Inaccurate Impressions Corrected in Statement Issued by Prime Minister Bruce

MELBOURNE, Aug. 31.—The defence policy was explained today in a statement issued by Prime Minister Bruce.

Mr. Bruce said that the report of the Inspector-General of the Australian Military Forces (Sir Harry Chauvel), which constituted the basis of the defence policy, was inadequate for the crisis when it came.

That, too, was the experience of every other belligerent. While recognizing, therefore, that no expenditure could be regarded as adequate unless it was equal to every possible emergency, it was necessary to point out more per head of population than all the other Dominions put together. This, of course, did not come within the scope of the Inspector-General's report. With a coastline 13,000 miles long, and all its important towns and sources of supply situated along the coast, Australia recognized that her defence consisted primarily in insuring command of the sea through co-operation with the British Navy.

Record Amount of Money Spent
The figures which General Chauvel had given, though they did not aim to set out all the facts, might be read as indicating a lack of enthusiasm with regard to the general question of defence. His figures had been quoted to show that in the year before the war more had been spent upon the military forces than was provided last year, but the events of 1914 proved that even those figures, which constituted the basis of the defence policy, were inadequate for the crisis when it came.

That, too, was the experience of every other belligerent. While recognizing, therefore, that no expenditure could be regarded as adequate unless it was equal to every possible emergency, it was necessary to point out that Australia was actually spending today on defence more money than ever before in her history. The figures quoted by General Chauvel, whilst accurate from one particular standpoint, conveyed an inaccurate impression if applied to our general defence expenditure. The facts were that the last figure he quoted did not constitute one-quarter of the actual total defence expenditure.

Other Money Spent
"In 1914-15," proceeded Mr. Bruce, "the Government embarked on a programme of development extending over five years, and involving an annual expenditure of 1,000,000. In addition to the expenditure of 1922-24, the total annual appropriation for defence purposes being 15,000,000, this additional amount has been devoted to the training of the extra personnel required in connection with the new naval construction, additional military training, and the purchase of stocks of munitions for the army, and the raising of new units for the air force.

"In addition, the Government has embarked on a naval construction programme of 1922-23, involving an expenditure of 17,000,000. Special grants of 1250,000 for munitions for the army, 1200,000 for air force purposes, and 1200,000 for the survey of the Barrier Reef, all three additional to the above, have also been provided within the period stated. Then again, besides providing each year a substantial sum for the purchase of military munitions from abroad, the Government is devoting roughly half a million a year to the project for the manufacture of munitions locally, and is subsidizing civil aviation.

Apart from all the foregoing, the Government is spending many millions of pounds on roads, railways, wireless, and harbor improvements, the provision for which was decided upon partly at least from the aspect of its value for defence. It will be seen that the Government is doing far more than any of its predecessors and considerably more than any of the other Dominions to piece the defence of Australia on
